

Teaching & Learning for Diverse Students

A GTCASA workshop for teachers and pre-service teachers

Where: School of Education
Flinders University,
Bedford Park

What's it about?

The Australian Curriculum focuses on personalising learning to meet the needs of diverse students, including those who are gifted and talented. The Australian Professional Standards for Teachers emphasise that teachers need to differentiate curriculum and instruction for students across all abilities. The responsibility is clear.

What do teachers need to know in order to fulfil the promise?

This workshop aims to showcase practical approaches that meet the needs of gifted learners, including those who may also have additional needs.

Who should attend?

Teachers, pre-service teachers, and school leaders.
